NEW VARIETIES FROM AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND

I am one grower who does not think it necessary to apologize for specializing in Gladiolus of foreign originations. Too many Gladiolus have been introduced in this country the past few years that are just so much junk. Most of these are ones that are or have been extensively advertised. After having seen these in comparison to the newer ones from Australia I do not hesitate to recommend the latter to amateurs or commercial growers. For the most part they are far ahead of what this country has to offer.

It is not necessary to take our word for this, but in our selection of varieties we looked to such world acclaimed specialists as Errey Bros., Percy Symons, Coates, G. Errey, Wm. Julyan, the reports of the Ballarat Trial grounds and notes in the Australian "Flower Lover," etc.

Not all the Australian Gladiolus with fanciful names being advertised are worth growing, but for those who never have seen or grown the new ones by all means start in with Mrs. S. A. Errey, Red Lory, and Our Selection and if possible include the two Giants: Lucifer (a new type often having up to 4 side shoots over 2 feet in length), and Silversheen (a massive spike of pink). Both awarded F. C. C. and the latter rated the most freely exhibited Gladiolus at the Australian shows a year ago. Waratah, still rare, is a new red both dazzling in color and size and still sun-proof. It will be very popular, has a rugged growth like Nuthall, is brighter than Bennett and opens up its whole spike like Red Lory. A masterpiece in brilliant red.

Of some of these we have imported nearly the entire amount available so that we have many times more stock than all the other growers in this country combined. With our this year's importations and plantings we will no doubt have the largest planting of the newer Australian Gladiolus in this country.

OUR STOCK OF MAIR'S VARIETIES IS ALSO EXCEEDED BY NO ONE.

Our releases for 1935 and 1936 will be large quantities of such outstanding ones as Miss New Zealand, Avignon, Chasseur, Cicero, Gladys Clegg, Coimba, Orlando, Healthfield, etc. We will also have available then a large additional amount of planting stock of Lucifer, Waratah, Silversheen, Sussex, etc. We supply many growers so can take care of everyone's needs.
